Jay's Journal

Hello!

As you know Fair Oaks of Pittsburgh will become Fair Oaks Senior Living, under our new owner Michael Haass, but I would first like to say what a pleasure and honor it has been to serve the residents and families at Fair Oaks of Pittsburgh with Desiree Gress for the last twelve years. During that time, I benefited from her leadership, mentorship, and friendship. I wish her all the best in retirement and am happy she will get to spend time with her family.

As Fair Oaks of Pittsburgh changes to Fair Oaks Senior Living, Michael has put his faith in me to continue in my role as Administrator, and to continue our commitment to compassionate care, quality service and an attention to detail. My commitment to the residents and their families will continue and I will always do my best for you. I am so excited that the entire management team and staff have agreed to stay on board, as we have become a well-oiled machine and will continue to run as we always have.

I view this change as a great opportunity for all of us and Mike's vision for Fair Oaks Senior Living is very exciting and I am thrilled to be a part of it. As your fearless leader of Fair Oaks, we will all forge ahead into the next era with confidence. I am always here for you if you need anything at all and here's to the next twelve years!

Rev. Ing's Things

Dear Ones,

Here we are in my most favorite month of the year, October. It is fully fall now. The scents, the colors, the pumpkins, I love all of it. But man, it seems to move too fast. October 1st finds me already dreading October 31st. Barry Manilow's song "When October Goes" is one of the truest for me. The last line: "It doesn't matter much how old I row, oh how I hate to see October go." makes me cry every time I hear it. This month I have promised myself that I will not look ahead and start dreading the end of the month, rather I will try to be "in the moment" and enjoy each gorgeous day.

Staying connected with our Loving Creator is the best way to stay in the moment and cast off our regrets and our worries. In October, I invite you to join us in the Lemon Lounge at 4:30 pm for a time of prayer and meditation. We will be using the book "Praying with John of the Cross" by Wayne Simsic. Copies of the weekly readings will be provided. These meetings will be brief, but, I hope, helpful in keeping us focused and mindful of the presence of God's love always and in all ways. You will be done in time for the evening meal! Our regular Bible Study meets prior to this new group, Wednesdays at 3:30 pm in the Activities Room. We are currently working our way through the book of Esther.

Don't forget that that everyone is invited to chapel services at 1:30 pm on Sundays. Thank you for making every minute I spend among you at Fair Oaks a truly blessed one! See you soon!

Love, Pastor Ing(rid)
