Jay's Journal

Hello everyone!

There have been a lot of changes in 2021! This is my reminder that change isn't always a bad thing. With change comes opportunity. As we close out the year, we are reminded that each new year brings new hope along with new unforeseen challenges. The abundance of wisdom, experience and adventure that our residents have mustered through the years is a testament to this, despite challenging times throughout the decades. I am so honored to be amongst so many people who have lived through some very difficult times, and been better for it. So as we bring 2021 to a close, whether it went the way you anticipated or not, 2022 is right around the corner. A new year, filled with new hope is upon us.

I am looking forward to serving you and making your life here at Fair Oaks, the best it can be! Though I don't know who originally coined the phrase (though I do state it often), "You do not live where I work. I work where you live!". As residents here, though you may not realize it, but you have an impact on the entire staff here. We all have grown to love and care about you since the day you decided to live here.

I wish you all peace, happiness and health in 2022!

Rev. Ing's Things

Dear Ones,

We are approaching the end of the calendar year, but weirdly enough, the Christian calendar year has just begun! Protestants, Catholics, our Orthodox siblings, we all have started a new liturgical year with the beginning of Advent. Advent is a time of "waiting." We wait to celebrate the birth of Jesus, we wait to celebrate the coming of the Light into the world. Truth is, the Light has always been with us. The first sentences of John's Gospel testify to that, check it out! There are times in our lives when we really sense the Light of Christ and other times when things seem kind of dim. It is my hope and prayer that in this season of waiting as we are preparing our hearts for the celebration of the birth of the Baby in Bethlehem, we will sense the always-present Love of God with us. We will be holding a Candle Light service on Friday, December 24 at 1:30.

EVERYONE is welcome to join in carol singing and the reading and the hearing of the birth of Jesus! Jesus, God with us, the Word, the Light, the ONE who shows us, in His living and dying, just how much we are loved by our God.

Much love and peace to you,

Pastor Ing

Phipps Conservatory Trip

Mary Kay's Corner

Hi everyone!

I hope this finds everyone healthy and happy! I just wanted to remind everyone to be mindful when coming to visit your loved ones. If you are experiencing flu-like symptoms such as cough, sore throat, or fever, please refrain from entering the building. We have been very lucky to be COVID free since December 2020 and Flu free since 2018.

On another note, as Fair Oaks can provide transportation for residents to and from an appointment. Please make sure you are giving us at least two weeks advance notice of the appointment time, especially if you need an escort.

Happy Holidays!

Active Alex

Hi everyone!

There are a lot of fun activities going on in December and I wanted to let everyone know that family is always welcome to come to any activity that we do!

We will also be having more "Friends and Family" events in the future, starting off with the Spaghetti Dinner! If you or your loved ones are interested in coming please reach out to me so I can send along tickets. There will be good food and an awesome raffle with three different baskets!

As always, please let me know if there are other activities you would like to see on the calendar!
