Jay's Journal

Happy February!

I just wanted to take a moment to go over a few challenges we have been experiencing in the Dietary Department. Many of you have noticed that we have made substitutions to our menu on the day of your meal. I want to be very clear that this has nothing to do with the planning, ordering or preparation of meals by our Dietary Director, Zach. Our food vendors have been having difficulty fulfilling orders and make substitutions the day of delivery, with little to no advance notice to Zach. We have met with our vendors and developed some strategies to mitigate some of the complications that cause disruptions to our menus. This is not something that is isolated to Fair Oaks, but is effecting the entire country. Product supply that is limited or delayed due to availability and delivery is effecting every industry. I have to credit Zach and his team for shifting on the fly and I ask that you remain patient with us while the economy, ordering, shipping and delivery rights itself on a national level. We continue our commitment to offer quality menu items, three times per day, 365 days each year. If you have any requests, questions or concerns, please see Zach or I. Thank you and keep warm!

Come try a fun, seated, virtual reality experience courtesy of Pastor Ing!

Rev. Ing's Things

Dear Ones,

Twenty years ago, I attended church with my dear friend, Noreen at St. Valentine's in Bethel Park. It was the priest's last day at St. Val's. He led the whole congregation in this song, "Will you be my V-A-L-E-N-T-I-N-E? If you will, you know how very happy I will be! Sugar and spice and all things nice are all that it will be! If you'll be my V-A-L-E-N-T-I-N-E"! He usually sang the song with the children, but on this day we all- kids to seniors, sang and clapped. I didn't know the priest, I cried with the rest of the church during this very precious way of saying goodbye. That priest was moving to another church, but the love that he shared with his parishioners was staying --- and traveling with him. That's one of the many wondrous things about love. The more love we give away, the more we get in return. Don't get me wrong, I know that love human love can hurt! I've had my share of broken hearts. But love is the very thing that also HEALS the broken heart. It is a weird, wonderful paradox. The love that God has for us is different from human love. We don't have to worry about saying the right things, or looking a certain way, God loves us just as we are. God welcomes our worries, our doubts, God loves all that we are. It is hard to remember that, but let's remind ourselves and one another, always.

Our Flicks and Faith movie this month is Whoopi Goldberg in Sister Act. Join us in the Activities Room on Saturday, February 26 at 6:00 pm for snacks and laughs!

And remember, too ALL ARE WELCOME at chapel on Sundays at 1:30 pm. Much love - Pastor Ing

Hi guys!

As I'm sure you have seen, there has been a medium sized dog running around Fair Oaks for a couple months now and I wanted to take a minute to introduce her as Morgan, our very own Fair Oaks therapy dog!

She is Liz Magnelli's dog and she is a six year old Catahoula Shepard dog rescued from Tennessee! She is very, very well trained and loves nothing more than boiled eggs, belly rubs, and running around outside. Morgan knows a ton of tricks and is happy to perform if there is a treat involved! She can give paw, spin, speak, whisper, and sit!

She is sweet, loving, kind and loves human interaction, so the next time you see her make sure you give her a big hello, a treat, and a pat! And make sure you thank Liz for sharing her furry friend with us!

Mary Kay's Corner

Hi everyone,

In the colder coming months I just want to remind everyone how important it is to stay warm. If you are taking your loved one out of the building please make sure they have a coat, hat and gloves. We want to make sure that everyone stays warm and healthy!

We have managed to stay fairly healthy throughout this year and would like to keep it that way. With the cold weather comes colds, flu, etc. and we want to keep IT ALL out of the building.

If your loved one is feeling sick or under the weather please let me know so that I can take a look at them and have them see the doctor if necessary.

Stay Healthy!

Zach's Snacks

Valentine's Day is right around the corner, so everyone will be looking for their favorite heart shaped chocolate treat. How did chocolate and Valentines Day become so intertwined? Chocolate has been around since the beginning of time, with it being consider a luxury item to the Mayans. By the 1800's Valentine's Day became a holiday in England with Cadbury Chocolate, which we all know from the Cadbury eggs at Easter time, started selling decorative heart shaped boxes filled with chocolate. After this the holiday made its way to the United States in the early 1900's Hershey later introduced Hershey Kisses and Russel Stover introduced their famous lace heart chocolate box that are both still sold to this day!
