Jay's Journal

Hello everyone!

The nicer weather is bringing about some changes around Fair Oaks. The old building will soon be coming down to be replaced with some beautiful and useable space!

As you are aware, the Chapel is located in the old building and will be coming down with the rest of the building, but do not fret! Sean & John are working very hard to build a new Chapel on the lower level that will open in April. Please be on the lookout for updates regarding religious services, as there will be a point in time that we need to transition the altar, some stained glass windows and wood trim from the old Chapel to the new Chapel. We are working very hard to make sure that the beauty from our old chapel is captured in this new space.

In the mean time all services will continue as normal. Reverend Ingrid will be hosting a number of Easter services and more, so please be on the lookout for those!

If you have any questions please feel free to come and see me, my door is always open!

Thank you in advance for your patience during the renovations!

Easter Egg Dying

ACTIVITY ROOM

Friday, April 15th at 11:00

Join us for some super fun Easter Egg Dying and painting!

Rev. Ing's Things

Dear Ones,

One of my favorite authors, Anne Lammott, describes Easter in this way, "This is the Easter message, that awakening is possible, to the goodness of God, the sacredness of human life, the sisterhood and brotherhood of all."

Beautiful, isn't it? The idea of awakening to all that is possible, to all that IS because of the love of our common Creator. That is the GOOD NEWS!

Franciscan friar Fr. Richard Rohr says "Jesus did not come to change God's mind about humanity. Jesus came to change the mind of humanity about God." In chapel, during Lent, we have looked at the ways in which Jesus helps us to see God in a way that might be different from ways we've traditionally pictured God (the Man the sky, the One "up there", somehow removed, waiting to catch us misbehaving). But God came to earth in the form of Jesus to help us understand more about our beautifully mysterious God: radical, vulnerable, all-inclusive, One who stands up for the oppressed and is willing to die for THE cause-- the cause of LOVE.

Please join us for chapel on Sunday, April 10 as we celebrate Palm Sunday. Additionally, we will have a Stations of the Cross prayer service on Good Friday, April 15 at 6:00 pm as we follow Jesus on the road to the cross. On Sunday, April 17 we will sing Alleluia as we celebrate Christ's destruction of death, in His rising to life. Remember, all are welcome!

Saturday, April 30 at 6:00 pm we'll be watching the movie "Angels in the Outfield" in the Activities Room.

May you and all those whom you love have a blessed Easter season. I look forward to sharing in springtime joy with you all!

Love,

Ing

Happy Spring everyone!

I wanted to remind everyone that outside drugs of any kind are not allowed, including cough drops!

I know it sounds silly, but if we are unaware of some medications that you are taking they could conflict with any prescriptions we administer to you and that could lead to major problems down the road.

If there is some medication you think could help you, or you are feeling under the weather, please let me or Alex know and we will add you to the schedule for doctor day (which is every Wednesday) so that Dr. Leonard can assess you!

Please feel free to reach out with any questions!

Zach's Snacks

Happy Easter Month!

I thought I would go traditional and explain where chocolate easter eggs came from!

Chocolate Easter eggs are now one of the most common symbols of Easter. First created in the 19th century, the real developments in the creation of chocolate eggs came with the experiments made by the Cadbury Brothers in the 1870s.

Picking up on the tradition for decorating real eggs at Easter, the brothers (and other leading chocolatiers of the time) worked with chocolate to make it easier to melt and shape. The first decorated Easter eggs were covered with marzipan flowers and filled with sugared almonds.

So cool!
