Jay's Journal

Hello!

The OLD building is officially closed to residents & guests now that the Chapel has been moved to its new location on the lower level. In an effort to preserve Fair Oaks' rich history, the stained glass windows in the old Chapel have been professionally removed and will be repurposed elsewhere in the building.

In the coming weeks, the old building and surrounding area will become an active construction zone. This means that walking outside and around the building will have restricted access and will certainly effect car & foot traffic patterns. Be on the lookout for signs & postings for temporary driveway, entrance and walkway closures at the front entrance.

I will be sending out an email to all resident's POAs regarding the construction and the new traffic patterns. Please be sure to share that with any other family and friends that may visit. The announcements will also be made weekly and sometimes daily and posted on www.fair-oaks.com, FOTV (Fair Oaks TV) and also our Facebook Page.

Thank you for your cooperation and patience during this exciting time! We are greatly looking forward to the wonderful building updates that are to come. If you have any questions please feel free to reach out!

Join us for a grief group meeting with Alex and Liz.

Rev. Ing's Things

Dear Ones,

Easter is over. The ears have been nibbled off of the chocolate bunnies. The eggs have been found. There MIGHT be some licorice jelly beans left, but who really likes those? Easter is over, right? Nope! Nope! Nope! Nope!

Christian thinker Brian McLaren wonders, what if we thought of Easter "...as the ongoing resurrection of all humanity through Christ? Easter could be the annual affirmation of our ongoing resurrection from violence to peace, from fear to faith, from hostility to love, from a culture of consumption to a culture of stewardship and generosity . . . and in all these ways and more, from death to life. What if our celebration of Easter was so radical in its meaning that it tempted tyrants and dictators everywhere to make it illegal because it represents the ultimate scandal: an annual call for creative and peaceful insurrection against all status quos based on fear hostility, exclusion, and violence? What if we never stopped making Easter claims about Jesus in AD 33, but always continued by making Easter claims on us today – declaring that now is the time to be raised from the deadness of fear, hostility, exclusion, and violence to walk in what Paul called "newness of life"? What if Easter was about our ongoing resurrection "in Christ" – in a new humanity marked by a strong-benevolent identity as Christ-embodying peacemakers, enemy lovers, offense forgivers, boundary crossers, and movement builders?"

Now that would be something, wouldn't it? Think about how differently the world might look at this time next year if we keep proclaiming death to all that is divisive and LIFE to all that is God's will of love?

I see life all around me here at Fair Oaks. I see generative relationships; I hear loving words, I catch the tender hands on shoulders, the smiles shared between all of you. Easter isn't over. Resurrection is everywhere and always!

Remember that ALL are welcome in our beautiful new chapel Sundays at 1:30 pm. Join us for Bible Study on Wednesdays at 3:30 pm. And our Faith and Flicks movie will be the Emmy award-winning My Life with Judy Garland, Saturday, May 25 at 6:00 pm in the Activities Room.

Much love to you and all those whom you love,

Pastor Ingrid

Mary Kay's Corner

Happy Spring everyone!

With the warmer weather come many new and exciting changes! We are looking forward to finding ways to better serve you, the residents!

One of the exciting changes we have coming is a mobile dentist and ophthalmologist! This will mean that rather than going out for dental work and eyecare someone will come to you! We have been speaking to some providers and are very excited about this opportunity!

We are also going to be offering mental health services through Valley Psychology Center. This will be in addition to the great care that our PCPs provide! Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns and we look forward to continuing your great care!

Walker Washing

Thursday, May 12th at 11:00

Come to the first floor Lobby to have your walker or wheelchair washed! There will be donuts and drinks!

Volleyball

Tuesday, May 25th at 11:00

Join Liz for a fun and friendly game of Volleyball with our new net!

Active Alex

Hi everyone!

Happy almost Mother's Day!

In honor of Mother's Day we will be having our annual Mother's Day tea party! Please make sure you come down and feel free to bring family and friends!

As the warmer months start to come around we will be taking more outings! If you would like to go please make sure to sign up with either myself or Liz in the dining room when we come around. Some of these outings require tickets which are purchased in advance, so if you do sign up and decide to cancel last minute you will still be charged for the pre-purchased ticket.

If you have any questions please feel free to reach out to me or Liz!

Zach's Snacks

Hey everyone!

As summer approaches we will be starting our weekly cookouts in the dining room as we have done in yeas past!

The outdoor construction project will be starting soon but we will still be able to have our weekly cookout ! They will be every Friday and will include burgers, hot dogs, corn, salads, and sometimes barbeque chicken!

Unfortunately, we will not be able to have the Floor picnic this year at the gazebo because of the construction, but we are hoping to resume them once our beautiful new space is created!

As always, if you have any questions about this feel free to reach out or ask in the monthly food meeting!

Joe's Crab Shack Lunch

Tuesday, May 24th at 11

Sign up with Alex in the dining room to go to Joe's Crab Shack for lunch!
