Zach's Snacks

Hey everyone, to those of you that have been here for our past Oktoberfest events you'll notice some changes this year for everyone else we're expecting it to be a good time! This year we will open from 4-7 for anyone to stop in and have something to eat and drink. In years past tickets had to be purchased and everyone who didn't buy one had to eat in their rooms. This year everyone is welcome to come down at any point this will take place of our typical dinner but plenty of food will still be provided, such as Three types of German sausage, potato pancakes, red cabbage, sauerkraut and more! If you have any questions, feel free to reach out as always

Dollar Tree Shopping Trip

Thursday October 6th at 10:00am
Join Liz for a fun shopping trip out to the Dollar Tree!

Rev. Ing's Things

Dear Ones,

Last month in my adult Sunday School class at East Liberty Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Dr. Jacqui Lewis, pastor of Middle Church in Manhattan, met with us on Zoom. She is the author of the book we are studying Fierce Love: A Bold Path to Rule-Breaking Kindness that Can Heal the World. The entire class was inspiring. but her benediction, her final blessing prayer for us was exceptional. She asked us to bow out heads and she prayed, "May you feel God's love as close to you today, as if it were your own skin." When we raised our heads, there wasn't a dry eye in the group. What a wonderful prayer. What a wonderful hope. That we could all feel gods love so close to us. Of course God's love IS that close to us, God's love isn't just touching our skin, but it is also filling our lungs, beating our hearts, coursing through our blood. Yet sometimes, grief and loss, anxiety and fear, regret and shame, make it difficult for us to feel God's love. My prayer for each one of us, and for all those whom you love, but as this days continue to shorten, as the temperatures continue to drop, we instead feel a lengthening, a warming that only comes from the One Source of Love. In November Liz and I will be offering a worship service of remembrance and celebration of love, a time to lift up those so precious to us who have finished their earthly journey and have returned to their Loving Creator. If there is someone special whose name you would like to include in the memorial bulliten that Liz is creating for the service, please let Liz or me know. This service will be held at 1:30 on Sunday November 27th and, like every service here in our community, it is open to all, no matter your path to Love. Thank you, for the privilege of serving alongside here with you. When I look at each one of you, I am reminded that we live in a Christ-soaked world.

Love, Pastor Ingrid

Hello Everyone,
We are heading into the Cold & Flu season in October. To prepare for this we are offering the COVID Booster shot and the Flu shot to our residents through Leechburg Pharmacy. The COVID Booster shots will administered in the building on October 20th and we are working on scheduling a date for Flu shots.

Liz's Leisure's

Hello everyone!
We have a busy October ahead of us! I am excited to see everyone at Oktoberfest on the 7th. I wanted to remind everyone that friends and families are welcome to stop in on any of our activities! If there is ever an activity you would like to join your family member with feel free to stop in anytime.

A Time of Remembrance and Thanksgiving
